Employment History

Copelands Sheltered Housing, Volunteer Catering Assistant – Present

As a volunteer at Copelands, my duties include serving residents with their meals and making them tea and coffee. I enjoy spending time with the residents and talking to them about their day. I also help in the kitchen where I clean the dishes. I make sure common areas are kept clean and tidy, particularly in the kitchen where they need to meet strict health and safety guidelines. I also put the pots, pans, cutlery and plates away in the correct place. I always make sure I work within the health and safety guidelines.

Education & Training

Marshfields School

I completed my secondary education at Marshfields School, where I studied Maths, English and Science.

Peterborough Regional College

- IT Course
- Performing Arts Course

Hobbies and Interests

In my spare time, I like relaxing and watching TV.
